The Five Cricketers of The Year

Ian Denny

Yet another sensational season completed by the great Eggbert. As age catches up with us all, we see the brilliance of the sportsman who adapts and modifies his game to suit his talents. A far more contained approach to batting and a major progression of the leg spin experiment suggests that Ian will have many contributions to make in the seasons ahead. His 551 runs at 45.5 and 25 wickets at 22.2 are healthy testimony to his continued contribution to the team's success. Twelve times in thirteen innings this season Ian score beyond 20, including six half centuries. Ian caps his season with his ninth Club Champion trophy, and is poised to become the first player in the history of our club to pass six thousand runs.

Warwick Nolan

At 41 years of age, it has been a really wonderful year for our club's most senior superstar, highlighted no doubt by two memorable centuries. The first of these, a meticulous 109 not out, included sixty singles in a day long dissection of old foes Pascoe Vale. The second, in contrast, was a brutal unbeaten 154 against Campbellfield which included 25 boundaries. Such is the range of Warwick's batting ability. His aggregate of 476 runs at 68.0 was enough to win both the club and the Association's batting awards, and his all time club tally now exceeds 5000 runs. Warwick holds the record for the most centuries scored by any player in the history of the club and this season collects his sixth premiership medallion.

Greg Meyers

A great humourist and clubman, Greg won his eighth MVCC fielding award this season. The winner of the association fielding award yet again, he managed 41 dismissals in what is arguably his most successful season ever. Despite his years, Greg is still the stand out keeper in the competition. Despite a lack of opportunities, he is still an excellent batsman, especially under pressure. His unbeaten 23 in the Semi Final was typical of his big occasion record. After over 200 games, life membership and 7 premierships, there is dialogue about that "Shuma" may hang up his inners. Let it be said now that Greg is playing too well and Moonee Valley is too big a part of his life, for any of us to be content with that option.

Danny Fitzpatrick

After many seasons of consistent performance, Danny must surely now rate as Moonee Valley's best player never to play in the first eleven. Danny's return of 366 runs at 28.1 is healthy enough, but when you consider the impact of an added 44 wickets at 12.1 the contribution of Danny to his team's success begins to take on gigantic proportions. In an extremely consistent season, the highlight with the blade was an unbeaten century against Keilor in the second last round and the highlight with the ball was the 6/40 from 24 overs to orchestrate a terrific win over Craigieburn in the semi final. A winner of numerous batting and fielding awards in recent seasons, Danny adds the club and the association bowling trophies to his collection.

Mario Tenace

After many fine seasons of football for the Valleys, Mario's skills in the summer game became evident after a slow start. His 615 runs at 47.3 was highlighted an unbeaten century in the fourth eleven's winning first semi final effort against Greenvale. Mario also scored 112 against Donnybrook earlier in the season. With six scores above 40, Mario was the competition's most consistent run scorer, and his 15 wickets at 28.4 is an excellent return in a one day competition where bowlers are limited to seven overs only. Aside from his century, Mario's other outstanding games were 93 and 3/32 against Strathmore in round 7; and 68 not out and 3/34 against Airport West in round 13.
