The Five Cricketers of The Year

Ian Denny

After a career based on being a spectacular match winner, Ian continues to set the career pattern for us all with his dedication to the continuing development of his skills. This season he has worked his bowling from a shortened run, often into the wind, and his 43 wickets is testimony to consistent success. A workmanlike approach to batting has netted him a further 355 runs this season and he is now the club's all time leading run scorer. Ian is an outstanding athlete and a wonderful team and club member. His deed and his demeanour continue to be an inspiration of us all.

Robert Lamberti

Lamberti has dominated the Luscombe Shield batting since he joined our club four seasons ago. This year he maintained his outstanding record of consistency adding a further 481 runs in only eleven innings to add to an impressive career aggregate already nearing two thousand runs. Further to this, Rob's insistence that his pedestrian swing bowling is an unheralded feature of his game has become all too much to bear for some doyens at the club. However, it must be said that most of his season's 9 wickets were those of class opposition and came at particularly important times during games.

Jim McKenzie

A model of consistency for numerous seasons, Jim has performed tirelessly for his 31 wickets in a moderately successful second eleven. Although he is never far away from a call up to the Luscombe Shield and it is generally agreed that his tall delivery and immaculate line and length approach would assure him of success at the top level. It is Moonee Valley's good fortune to have retained Jim as he would be assured of a first eleven berth at any other club in the competition. Jim has been a popular team mate and a fine clubman for many years. We all hope that this will be the case for more years yet.

Michael Harvey

It comes as no huge surprise to any of us, that the return of one Michael John Harvey to our club would soon coincide with a spectacular assault on an unsuspecting opposition bowling attack. His 171 in the semi final highlighted a perfect blend of discipline, technique and flair. Michael is an elegant and graceful player who uses placement and superb timing to build his innings. The circumstances of opening an innings often deny us opportunity of seeing Michael display his full array of strokes but nonetheless his season's haul of 474 runs were the most watchable runs you would ever want to see.

Sandro Capocchi

After an outstanding season as captain of the club's second eleven, Sandro took his deserved promotion into the Luscombe shield and systematically went about building himself a reputation as one of that competition's most efficient openers. Although, a proportion of his 493 runs came from his renowned pull shot, it was his discipline in defence and the emergence of a Trumperlike cover drive have made him a far more difficult prospect for the opposition than the one they may have encountered two seasons ago. Sandro has many more Luscombe Shield runs ahead of him yet, that's for sure.
